Proposition to Divert it from Baltimore, Where it Largely Goes, to Richmend-Fredericksburg Getting an Increasing Share of It.

(Specialto The Times-Dispatch.)
COMORN, VA., July 25.—It is very boubtful if there has ever been a time when any county in Virginia could "boast" of as many dogs as King George has kept "constantly on hand," for the last thirty years. Strangers from other sections of the country-nursery agents, book agents and other "traveling men"—are generally impressed with the multitudes of curs they find here, and it has been said that the cost of keeping of the leading topics among the ess men in some parts of the North-Neck is the Rappahannock Valley. The business in this fertile section rith many thous not of dollars each and is constantly increasing. For years a major part of this valuable has been going to Baltimore. The me line of steaboats has made it may possible, but comparatively easy Baltimore to control this trade on sides of the Rappahannock River as up as Fredericksburg.

some time past it has been claimy some of the leading spirits here the business in question naturally gas to Richmond city, the State capand it is said that investigations, or iments, show that Richmond is fulqual to Baltimore as a wholesale to But a Baltimore as a wholesale to the practicality of building a sod to connect the two points is beconsidered and its existence and the second of the reaction of the trade, has taken a vastly important step has considered and independent steamboat line of the date of the trade, has taken a vastly important step for securing it. Horse Show, especially those from the stables of Charles H. Hurkamp, of the Boscobel Farm, Fredericksburg, an Courtland IL Smith, Hampton Farm, Alexandria. The Boscobel horses wer badly shaken up by the car being struck heavily just before shipment, and all of them were thrown down. Amaret, the crack high jumper, and Hornpipe, the sturdy roan heavyweight hunter, both escaped with a shaking up, but Field Marshal, Meadow Flume and Colonel Hawkins were not so fortunate, and sustained considerable injury. Hornpipe was first in the class for heavyweight hunters, and Amaret came second in that for jumpers, open to all, his successful competitor for first being the noted Heatherbloom. Lacy Sutherland, from the Hampton stable, was first in the classes for lightweight hunters, green, and in that for thoroughbred hunters. This good looking baby daughter of St. Carolus and Expensive, by Spendthrift, was formerly a member of the brood mare band at Hampton, but since being taken up and schooled to jump she has developed into a performer of real class. Among the competitors in the field for thoroughbred hunters were the brown gelding Joker, owned by T. L. Evans, of Warrenton, and Colonel Hawkins, from the Boscobel stable. The two last named came second and third. In class 38, open, hunt clubs, for best three hunters from one hunt, ridden by members or subscribers of the respective hunts in the hunt uniform, the blue ribbon went to the Cameron Hunt Club, Alexandria, and the red to the Deep Run Hunt Club, of Richmond. heavily just before shipment, and all

Mr. Henry L. Upshur, of the Elkington Farm, Eastville, Va., who is one of the best known owners and breeders of trotters and pacers on the Eastern Shore, writes me that his horses are all doing well. Salem, son of Iroquois and Fernwood, by Lancewood, is the premier sire at Elkington and some of his get are being worked for speed over the half mile track at the farm. Sam Patch, 2:23 1-4, the bay gelding by Salem, dam Pansy, by Bajardo, is in training and will be raced again this season. He is in fine shape, and will be likely to materially reduce his record. Hardy H., by Salem, had trotted to a record of 2:17 1-4 this season in a long drawn out race, and Sam Patch is considered equally as fast. Among others in the training stable at Elkington are Monnie J., bay mare, 4, by Salem; bay gelding, 4, by White Tip, dam by Lancelot, fast but erratic; and a couple of promising three-year-old colts, one owned by Albert Savago, Stewart's Wharf, Va., and the other by W. Gibb, Capeville, Va. The Savage colt was sired by Bursar, 2:17 1-4, the dead son of Stranger, dam, the dam of Stella, 2:24 1-4. He is a pure gaited trotter and promises to speed and race horse quality of a high order.

One of the most prominent and probably the best known of North Carolina.

One of the most prominent and probably the best known of North Carolina breeding establishments is beautiful Alamance farm, with its thousands of fertile acres, near the busy manufacturing town of Graham, and it is there that I beaks Holt, wealthy cotton formerly a member of the Alamance stud, and some of his get are there now, among them the beautiful brown stallion Giles Mebane, who now neads the farm. He has a pacing record of 2:16¾ and is out of the great brood mare Winnle D., dam of four in the list and others to follow. Gregorian, 2:29¾, the sire of Glencoe, 2:16¼, and other good horses, is the stud companion of Giles Mebane, while the brood mare band includes Winnle D. and Blondette, dam of Governor Helt, 2:15, and Eliza Ingram, 2:21¼.

The fastest horse at Mr. William DuPont's beautiful Montpeller farm. Orange, Va., is the bay racing stallion Selim, fealed 1893, by Saladin, 2:95%, dam Lydia, by Osceola, son of Morgan Black Hawk, second dam Florence, Schamp, thoroughbred daughter of Colton and Fountain. Selim is a pacer and can speed a merry clip when called upon for a brush. More attention, however, is paid to breeding draft horses at Moalpeller than to trotters and pacers, hence the son of Saladin has done little stud service, having been kept mostly for driving.

At Brighton Beach, New York, on Tuesday last, the Ellerslie bred coil Circus. 4, by imp. Charaxus, dam Ninore, by Eohis, won the bandicap at one mile and a ouarter, defeating Articulate, Sambe and others, and doing the distance in 2:07. During the senson of 1902 this bay son ef him. Charaxus was a good three-year-old, as he won, among other events, the Montsomery handican, the Washinston cup, and was only beaten a head after being shut off in the stretch, in the Cumberland Derby, conceding the winner 12 pounds.

President J. T. Anderson and Secretary W. O. Warthen, of the Richmond Horse Show Association, along with Manager C. W. Smith, are making active preparations for the greatest affair of the kind ever seen in the South this fall. The Richmond Horse Show will come off during the week of October 12th to 17th, when, as a rule, weather conditions are most favorable and the city offers manifold attractions to visitory from other sections. One feature of the show lone, that being the fields of hunters and immers to be seen paraded on the tan bark promises to be the most attractive in the history of the association, while the entries to other classes will be in keeping.
